"I am pleased to recognize AAFES as our 2017 Retailer of the Year and congratulate them for their recent accomplishments in Consumer Technology," said Fred Towns, President, New Age Electronics. "AAFES continues to work closely with our team to offer the best products and solutions to improve the lives of soldiers, airmen, and their families through a successful Omnichannel retail model."

The New Age Electronics Retailer of the Year award winner is selected based on year-over-year revenue growth, close executive alignment, strategic partnership, sourcing of multiple brands, and a consistent positive credit standing. In addition to meeting these criteria, AAFES is recognized for expanding their offerings with New Age Electronics and developing new and innovative ways to market and sell their products to consumers in stores and online. AAFES also recently made their website available to all honorably discharged military personnel, providing Veterans with a lifelong online shopping benefit.

At the CES customer appreciation event, New Age Electronics announced that its 2018 Retail Dealer Summit conference will be held July 16-18 in Hollywood, CA. Retail Dealer Summit is New Age Electronics' premier annual event catered exclusively for its retailer and vendor partners designed to help them prepare for the back-half of the year and the all-important Holiday Season.
